

Summer 1

Phonics

Practise reading and writing the tricky words:

some, one, said, come, do, so, were, when, have, there, out, like, little, what.

Here are some ideas: <https://phonicshero.com/tricky-words-activities/>

Learn the difference between their and there. Can you put them in a sentence? Recap the phase 5 sounds:

Please keep reading: <https://www.activelearnprimary.co.uk/login?c=0>

The log in is the first 4 letters of your child's first name, followed by the first four letters of their surname, followed by 01. Eg. charsmi01

This half term we are looking at fiction and non-fiction. If you don't have any at home have a look at non-fiction books on Oxford Owls <https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/> or Bug club.

You can generate your own alien and real word lists on the link below to practice.

3. Yayoi Kusama, Ready to Blossom in the Morning, 1989

Though known for her mirrored "Infinity Rooms" and use of polka dots (a motif derived from the hallucinations she's suffered since childhood), Yayoi Kusama has incorporated the image of flowers into some of her paintings, sculptures and installations, often rendered in a style that evokes children's art.

Here are some other artists that have been inspired by plants.
